

JUDGMENT: HOUSTON'S TEN YEARS WITHOUT STREET MINISTRY

August 29, 2021

9:25 p.m.

YAHWEH GIVES A FINAL WILL:

It's all due to your way. Yes, servant, they are being forced to say words that take on a defending way. You are the real reason for his way saying anything. Her way has this compelling way, and the surging is forcing her way. You are the one who is bringing this uproar. There is nothing that can be done to bring you back to hide in the cave.

You're a world-level prophet with a plan of entering a three-year presentation activation this Yom Kippur. And there will not be a hold upon your way within this three-year way, starting this Christmas 2021. Power will come and bring forward the way you will stay. Power is the needed way, not money. I will not let the word you speak in My name falter.

I can feel the pain in your heart for all the ways you have dealt with, and I know that as you stay with Me and I turn you, there will not be the same level of pain. Daily will the sting get lighter, and I will take good care of your way.

They will blame you ultimately for how they take a stand, but it is by Kingdom surgings in your mantle that makes the will of the Lord come forward. It is automatic. No cut-off person will drink the way that is needed. No cut-off person will have what is in your mantle. I will not bend. Their judgment is final.

What about Yahweh's judgment against a large city? Could one person build a case against a servant and bring a judgment against her town? That's what took way with Houston.

I take away all surgings from the city in Texas, a very large place with millions near, all due to one city-level, removed prophet. She has for many years spoken ill against your way and has made your name as dung in the land. And she has spoken ill of Yahweh's work and made it look as if you hear from demons to be this way.

I rain down judgment upon her and her way. I rain down a ten-year curse against this major city named Houston to give a way to pick what must be done. When they say their ill way against Yahweh's outlets and Yahweh's way to speak to the way, I must defend them.

Woe, woe, woe, Houston. You bowed in knees in worship to a wounded removed servant who has no licenses to give into her sphere. And now, I will not let a street ministry take way in the land of Houston for ten years from Yom Kippur. I will not bend.

I will only let My servant take that stage in a one-time all-day way to give the people Yahweh's great will when seven years have passed. No begging of any outlet will grant an audience with the King concerning this.

YAHWEH SAYS THIS:

You sought Yahweh, and your husband will make his plan clearly stated when this new spring is here. He is in a torn way but does not think so. But I can see his heart and how he longs to remain here. But I also see how you have a longing that no outlet can fill.

I put all of the city-level surgings within all outlets and store them in your mantle. You now have a powerful mantle in natural ways that can build up healing rooms. Can I prove it? Yes. Are you ready for that level of power? Are you ready to display your natural way of presentation? Are you able to tame your tongue? Are you done with the third stage of demon engagement? See? Now I have you. Don't give up. Major automatic changes will begin to lead in ten natural days. Be ready.
